Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

In line 12 of page 3 the word "surfaces" should be changed to - -surface- -.

In line 19 of page 3 the word "equipments" should be changed to - -equipment- -.

Appropriate correction is required.
2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. In claim 1 the "protruding ring" of line 5 is not properly described in the specification. Note that a "protruding circle" is mentioned on page 3.

See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o).

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to because they should provide a reference character for the protruding ring or circle which is on the shell 1. This reference character would also have to be entered into the specification at the appropriate place.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Phrases such as "there is a groove," "and inserting into the hole," and "further controlling" are narrative in form and should be replaced with more positive recitation.

The term "whereby moving" in line 9 should be changed to - -move- - to be more grammatically correct.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In line 9 the term "to enable the wheel moving" is awkward and unclear, and the term "moving" is indefinite. It appears that Applicants are trying to claim a limitation such as "to enable the rotation of the wheel."

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Preston.

Preston discloses a control structure for wheels comprising a pair of shells 20, each having a U-shaped hollow, and a groove 38 running the length of the thereof. A ring 30 surrounds the shells. An axle 18 having a hole (in the flange 24) is enclosed between the shells and included members 22 which have cogs 28 which fit into the grooves 38. The shells 20 may slide along and be positioned anywhere on the axle 18, and with the shells 20 and the axle 18 joined the assembly controls the turning on the wheel by keeping the shells and axle assembly together.

The cogs 28 are rectangular and not oval, but to use an oval shape would be within the level of ordinary skill in the art and would have been obvious as a design expedient since any number of different shapes would function to engage the grooves 38.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The references show other hub and axle assemblies.
